GATI-KWE certified by Transported Asset Protection Association

Hyderabad, February 12, 2014: GATI-KWE, leader in express distribution and supply chain management, has been awarded the Class B certificate by Transported Asset Protection Association (TAPA). Always putting the customer first, GATI-KWE has constantly strived to enhance its customer experience. GATI was the first logistics company to be certified under ISO in India. GATI-KWE is also the first domestic express company to have introduced real time monitoring and surveillance for real time tracking its consignments, vehicles and facilities through a centralized network monitoring centre at Hyderabad. The company's Noida Office was certified by TAPA for maintaining high standards of handling high-value products, use of high-tech equipment for cargo handling and highest security of consignments.

TAPA, which awarded its eighth certificate in the FSR-B category, is a unique forum of security professionals and related business partners that unites global logistic providers, freight carriers, manufacturers with a common aim of providing excellent supply chain security standards. High technology and high value logistics companies have formed this organization to address the emerging threats and to effectively reduce the losses in their supply chain.

On receiving the certification, Mr.Sanjeev Jain, Director- Finance, Gati Ltd. said, "At GATI-KWE, our constant effort is to ensure utmost security & damage control for the services we offer. Tackling cargo crime and maintaining the quality of service is a challenge and joining hands with TAPA is a step toward assuring our customers of a more secure service aligned to global compliance standards."
