

GATI-KWE joins hands with Oxfam India to deliver aid to the flood affected people in Uttarakhand

Hyderabad, July 8th, 2013: Gati-Kintetsu Express Private Limited (GATI-KWE), leaders in Express Distribution and Supply Chain Solutions in India, has joined hands with Oxfam India, an NGO to provide aid to people affected by torrential rains and floods in Uttarakhand.

Gati KWE & Oxfam India have signed an MOU for strengthening their partnership with Gati KWE being a logistics partner for Oxfam India's humanitarian response programs in India for more efficiently responding to the needs of the disaster survivors.

GATI-KWE is providing logistics support to Oxfam's emergency relief response activities in Uttarakhand.

Sanjeev Jain, Director, Gati-KWE said "Thousands of people in Uttarakhand have been displaced due to the floods. Our endeavor is to reach out to the survivors of this calamity and contribute in a small way for their well-being."

Gati believes in being a socially responsible corporate and going beyond business and profit by giving back to the society. Gati has in various capacities contributed towards development of community, promoting education and protecting the environment thereby contributing to develop a better society

Last year, during the destructive Assam floods, Gati helped Oxfam's relief operations reach many displaced villagers.

Gati has always been proactive in providing support to victims who are struck by natural calamities – be it constructing makeshift houses in earthquake hit Maye village (Gujarat), reconstructing a school in tsunami hit Nagore town (Tamil Nadu) and building work sheds for the flood affected weavers at Rajouli (Andhra Pradesh).
