

Gati receives the Dataquest Business Technology Excellence Awards 2012
&
The Dataquest Technology Innovation Award 2012
for the 'Mobility' segment.

Hyderabad – December 14, 2012- Gati Ltd India's pioneer in Express Distribution and Supply Chain Solutions received the "Dataquest Business Technology Excellence Awards 2012" for their overall excellence in the use of business technology. Gati was amongst the very few who to also receive another award the "Dataquest Technology Innovation Award 2012" for the 'Mobility' segment.

Launched by Cyber Media, 'DQ LIVE' is a forum for leaders in business technology and a platform to create value to business through IT. The Dataquest Business Technology Excellence Awards were given to recognize IT's role as enabler in business strategy and leadership in business technology.

Gati has always been cutting-edge organization, supported by a strong technology backbone and a disaster recovery centre. Every technological endeavor is designed to make every customer interface easy and efficient, and to put customers in complete control. Technology has been the core of the operational effectiveness and efficiencies at Gati. In the year 2003 Gati launched - Gati Enterprise Management System(GEMS), the first of its kind end-to-end cargo management system.

One of the recently launched initiatives has been the innovative way of using a mobile phone and a mobile printer to capture docket (AWB) details and print barcode package sticker at the point of pick up in real time. From 2009 onwards Gati has been using another innovative method of capturing delivery information and also the image of proof-of-delivery almost real time using a low end hand held device.
