

GATI PARTICIPATES AS PRINCIPAL CO-PARTNER IN THE CII ANNUAL SESSION

CII Annual Session 2018 sparked new ideas and perspectives on the future of India. Held on 8-9 April 2018 at hotel Taj Diplomatic Enclave in New Delhi, this year's Session was a vibrant and thought-provoking meeting place of the best minds in the country. The theme was Building A Better India Together: Responsible, Inclusive & Ahead.

The Annual Session brought together Union Ministers, Chief Ministers, key political leaders, policy makers, strategic thinkers, industry leaders, experts from abroad and media to deliberate on issues that will help create an enabling environment where industry can play a greater role in Nation Building. Over 1000 leaders from industry and other fields attended the event.

Apart from discussing the current economic situation, the sessions brainstormed on policy priorities and structural reforms related to infrastructure, human development, agriculture and trade, as well as other areas. It went beyond business and focused on emerging opportunities for the Indian youth, women and weaker sections of the society. Varied and important topics such as Indian trade policies, better governance, building an India together, delivering better justice etc were discussed.

Mr Arun Jaitley, Minister of Finance and Corporate Affairs, Government of India, was the Chief Guest for the Annual Session.

Ms Shobana Kamineni, Outgoing President, Confederation of Indian Industry & Executive Vice Chairperson, Appolo Hospitals Enterprises Ltd, addressed many of the national challenges during 2017-18. Mr Subodh Bhargava, Past President, CII & Executive Chairman Emeritus, Eicher Ltd & Chairman, Tata Communications Ltd and Mr Raghupati Singhania,
