

Express distribution company Gati bolsters senior leadership

By Anirban Chowdhury, ET Bureau • Last Updated: Jan 20, 2021, 01:24 PM IST

Synopsis

"Recent appointments including those of Manish Jain as the National Sales Head – SME; Charles Devlin D'Costa as the National Operations Head; and Vishal Singh Thakur as Head – Business Development and Customer Service for West Zone," said Bala Aghoramurthy, Deputy Managing Director, Gati-KWE.

MUMBAI: Express distribution company Gati NSE 1.99 %, which was acquired last year by Allcargo Logistics NSE 0.04 % is bolstering its senior leadership.

"Recent appointments including those of Manish Jain as the National Sales Head – SME; Charles Devlin D'Costa as the National Operations Head; and Vishal Singh Thakur as Head – Business Development and Customer Service for West Zone," said Bala Aghoramurthy, Deputy Managing Director, Gati-KWE.

Before joining Gati, Jain was national head of sales, marketing and corporate communications at TCI, India's largest transporter. Before that he was a branch manager with Blue Dart.

D'Costa was with DHL Smart Trucking for more than three years, first as chief sales officer, cold chain and then full time regional director. DHL Smart Trucking is part of Deutsche Post DHL, one of the world's largest logistics companies.

Singh Thakur was part of sales and marketing at online truck platform Rivigo. Before that he was with Vodafone for more than 8 years.